

The USS Hyman G. Rickover Commissioning Committee presents

UNDERSTANDING NAVAL POWER IN OUR 21st CENTURY

with

Former Commander, Submarine Forces
VICE ADMIRAL JAY DONNELLY (USN, Ret.)

Thursday, October 15, 2020 | 11:50 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. CDT

The USS Hyman G. Rickover (SSN 795) Commissioning Committee invites you to join us when we welcome Vice Admiral Jay Donnelly (USN, Ret.) for this timely discussion of U.S. naval power in managing the geopolitical challenges of the 21st Century.

VADM Donnelly graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1975 and served 35 years in the Navy. A submarine officer by training, his commanding officer assignments included USS Hyman G. Rickover (SSN 709) and USS McKee (AS 41). Selected to flag rank in 2000, he served as Commander, Submarine Group SEVEN in Yokosuka, Japan. His final assignment was as Commander, Submarine Forces, responsible for establishing force-wide strategies on core submarine issues such as force structure, budgetary requirements and manpower.

This program is presented in collaboration with the Naval Submarine League; Navy League of the United States and its Illinois Chapters: Aurora Council, Chicago Council, Glenview Council and Lake County Council; The Standard Club; United States Naval Institute; Union League Club of Chicago; U.S. Submarine Veterans, Inc.; USS Illinois 786 Club; and USS Chicago 721 Club.
